

Sir David Clementi

Sir David is a former Deputy Governor of the Bank of England. He was Chairman of Prudential plc until December 2008. He also holds positions on the boards of several large corporations, is a non-executive director on the board of governors of the Rio Tinto Group. In March 2008, he was announced as Warden of Winchester College.

After graduating he qualified as a chartered accountant. He then had a career in the finance industry, including 22 years with Kleinwort Benson, where he was Chief Executive and Vice-Chairman, culminating in his appointment as Deputy Governor of the Bank of England.

In July 2003, he was given the task of undertaking a wide-ranging independent review of the regulation of legal services in England and Wales, now known generally as the Clementi report.