

Jeremy G W Feggetter TD DL FRCS

Jeremy Feggetter trained in Surgery and Urology in Newcastle and London. He was appointed Consultant Urologist in 1979 and practised at Ashington Hospital, Northumberland and Freeman Hospital, Newcastle. He retired from full-time practice in September 2006 but continues to do two sessions weekly for the NHS. He was commissioned into the RAMC(V) in 1972, and served in Riyadh on Operation Desert Storm in 1991. Mr Feggetter was President of the Urology Section in 2005/06.

He says, 'I am a strong supporter of the RSM and believe its strength lies in the Sections and their activities. I will try to ensure that the RSM continues to support its Fellows and maintain its standing into the 21st century.'
