Expert witness and report writing courses with the RSM and BPP School of Health

About the course leader

Anton van Dellen originally qualified as a Medical Doctor and worked as a Registrar in Neurosurgery, before attending Christ Church, University of Oxford, as a Rhodes Scholar where he completed his DPhil under Professor Sir Colin Blakemore. He was then a Fellow at Christ Church as well as working for the NHS, serving in operational and executive posts.

Anton then read for a BA (Law) at Trinity College, Cambridge, before completing the Bar Vocational Course at BPP as a Princess Royal Scholar (Inner Temple). His subsequent LLM was on expert witnesses and interim injunctions. He completed pupillage at a leading Intellectual Property chambers before becoming Module Leader for Intellectual Property at BPP University College.

He is currently a Barrister at Goldsmith Chambers in London, where he frequently appears before the High Court and Court of Appeal, and also represents registrants subject to GMC and NMC proceedings.