Date: Tuesday 30 - Wednesday 31 January 2018
Venue: The Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street, London, W1G 0AE
CPD: Applied for

Academy days*
Coronary artery disease CT academy: Monday 29 January 2018
Structural heart disease CT academy: Thursday 1 February 2018
Venue: Crowne Plaza London Kensington, 100 Cromwell Road, London, SW7 4ER
*Not part of the main programme

Rates:
SCCT/BSCI members: £199
Non members: £299
Academy days: £149 - £249
SCCT London 2018
Date: Tuesday 30 - Wednesday 31 January 2018
Venue: The Royal Society of Medicine, 1 Wimpole Street, London, W1G 0AE

Background
This state of the art international meeting features an international expert faculty from the UK, North America and Europe. World leading experts in the field of cardiovascular CT (and other imaging modalities) will discuss the role of this technique in 2018, its broadening clinical application, update on technical optimization and discuss current and future research in this rapidly evolving field.

Conference themes
- Structural and congenital heart disease CT imaging in 2018
- Patient centred imaging
- New applications in cardiovascular CT
- SCCT meets EACVI - multimodality cardiovascular imaging
- Disruptive technology influencing cardiovascular CT

Keynote speakers
- Dr Jim Min, Weill Cornell Medicine, New York Presbyterian, USA
- Dr David Newby, University of Edinburgh, Scotland
- Dr Pál Maurovich-Horvat, Semmelweis University, Budapest, Hungary
- Dr Jeroen Bax, Leiden University Medical Centre, The Netherlands

Academy days
In addition to the main conference we have two academies taking place on Monday 29 January and Thursday 1 February 2018. These will be held at the Crowne Plaza London Kensington. Each academy is limited to 35 delegates, booking early is advised.

- Coronary CT led by Stephan Achenbach, MD, FSCCT (Monday 29 January 2018)
- Structural CT led by Jonathon Leipsic, MD, FSCCT (Thursday 1 February 2018)

Accommodation
Preferential room rates are available for SCCT delegates at the Crowne Plaza London Kensington. Call +44 (0)20 7341 2340 and quote RSM when booking to take advantage. Prices start from £169 per night bed and breakfast and can be booked until Monday 1 January 2018.

Abstract deadline
Delegates are invited to submit abstracts for consideration for a poster presentation at the conference. Any queries should be sent to abstracts@scct.org. The deadline is Friday 1 December 2017.

Rates:
- SCCT/BSCI members: £199
- Non members: £299
- Academy days: £149 - £249

Contact details:
- W: www.rsm.ac.uk/SCCTLondon2018
- T: +44 (0) 207 290 3946
- E: rsmprofessionals@rsm.ac.uk

SCCT webpage