To access ClinicalKey/The Cochrane Library/The King's Fund Library Database

Log in to the RSM website and then go to 'Learn' - 'Search the e-resources'.

The screenshot shows the top navigation bar of the Royal Society of Medicine website. The logo 'The Royal Society of Medicine' is on the left. A search bar is in the center, and a user account 'Mr Test16 My account' is on the right. Below the navigation bar, there are four main categories: 'Attend an event', 'Resources', 'Apply for a prize', and 'Watch and listen'. Under the 'Resources' category, the link 'Search the e-resources' is highlighted with a red box. Other links in the 'Resources' category include 'Access Library catalogue', 'Request document delivery', 'Literature search service', 'JRSM and JRSM Open', and 'Browse all resources'.

Scroll down to the bottom of the page and click on 'Access here' for which database you would like to use.

Please note you will have to do this twice. The second time the wording will change to 'Start a search'.

The screenshot shows a page titled 'About each database' with a right-pointing arrow icon. It features eight columns, each representing a different database or resource. Each column has a title, a brief description, and a 'Start a search' button. The 'Start a search' buttons for AMED, The Cochrane Library, and The King's Fund Library Database are highlighted with red boxes. The 'Helpsheets' column contains a list of links: 'Medline', 'Embase', 'AMED', 'DH-Data', 'Further tips for database search', 'About the Cochrane Library', 'Searching the Cochrane Library', and 'ClinicalKey'.
