Reservations
Hôtel Reisen

1. Definitions
An arrangement consists of premises being provided with or without accommodation and/or food and beverage, for the purpose of for example, conferences and functions. The client is the person - corporation or private individual – who is liable for the costs of the arrangement. The supplier intends the venue hosting the arrangement. The value of the reservation consists of the contracted rate for the entire reservation or the total of the reserved number of delegates multiplied with the contracted rate per delegate per day.

2. Reservation
The reservation request can be oral or written. The supplier will confirm the reservation in written from. A list with the name of the delegates shall be delivered to the hotel timely, no later than 14 days prior to the date of the first arrival.

3. Payment
Hotell Reisen reserves the right to require pre-payment in some cases. The client is liable for all costs according to the arrangement. If delegates shall pay anything separately, this has to be approved in advance by the hotel. No-shows at pre-ordered meals will be charged according to the contracted rates.
If an agreement has been made to pay by invoice, the client shall pay in total with 10 days due date. In case of late payment, the supplier is entitled to charge interest rate of reference rate plus 8% from the due date.
Payment by bank transfer to Hotel Reisen, VAT SE 556627544101, BG 382-4851, IBAN: SE9591900000091950917004, Swift: DNBASESX.
No shows of hotel rooms, i.e. guests not arriving as stated in the reservation will be charged the entire stay. Early departure, i.e. a guest departing prior to departure stated in the reservation, will be charged according to original reservation.

4. Food and beverage
Only the hotel's food and beverage services can be used during the arrangement.

5. Access to hotel rooms
Check-in from 3 pm. Check-out no later than noon.

6. Force majeure
The supplier is not liable for failure to perform its obligations if such failure is as a result of strike, lockout, fire, explosion or other natural disaster, war or hostilities, major interruption or failure of deliveries or similar situations non-controllable by the supplier and can terminate this agreement without duty to pay damages.

7. Liability for property
The hotel has no strict liability for property stored in hotel rooms, functions rooms or other premises. The hotel is responsible for property stored by the hotel in a locked storage area, if the property is not of a particular high value (SEK 10.000), if nothing else has been agreed. The client is responsible for damages at the hotel caused by negligence by him/herself or any delegate.
• Special written agreement is required for cases where the client wish to bring objects for exhibition, presentation, marketing and dismantling.
• The client is then responsible for the hotel's other operations not being affected. Any damage on the hotel's interior or exterior is to be reimbursed by the client.
• All sorts of marketing is to be approved by the hotel.

8. Valuable property
If the client wish to bring property of a high value to be stored in the hotel's storage area, luggage room or safety box, the client shall inform the hotel. In case of theft or similar incident, the hotel is only liable if the hotel by written confirmation has agreed to be responsible for the property
